MYHRE-BERGE FAMILY DIRECTORY

1775303

This Myhre-Berge Family Directory was sponsored by the Myhre-Berge Family Reunion, which meets annually, usually the last Sunday in July. There are, no doubt, some names spelled incorrectly and some names omitted, especially of those residing in Norway. It is, however, as correct and complete as possible from information secured during the period of compilation.

DORTHEA MYHRE
Vang, Valders, Norway
Born about 1803. Died 1892
Her husband Ole Myhre died 1892

Below;

Ole G. Berge and Annie Berge
Born about in the 1790's
Died about in the 1870's
Annie Berge and Dorthea Myhre were sisters, so all the Myhres and Berges are related from this source.

MYHRE FAMILY

A few generations ago, the Black Plague struck an area in Norway. All but one little girl died before outside help came. The girl lived, and not knowing her name, they gave her the name of "Lina", meaning in English "Alone". All the Myhres and all the Berge or Berg are direct descendants of this girl. All the Myhres are also direct descendants of a certain Duchess of Norway that married outside of the royalty. Her name was known, but lost at this time on account of those having it are now deceased, but we do know that her family crest was "The Crescent and Anchor."

The Myhre reunion now starts with Ole Myhre and Dorothea Myhre, his wife of Vang, in Valdres, Norway. Born in the early part of the 19th century. Ole Myhre died in 1843. Dorothea Myhre died in 1892. Both buried at the Lutheran Church Cemetery in Vang, in Valdres, Norway. (They owned their own home and acreagee in Norway).

The following is a list of their sons and daughters according to age, the oldest listed first:

BERGE FAMILY

Berge or Berg herein referred to are all the same family. Tosten O. Berg, of the Marit and Ove Zacariason Berge family used the name Berg instead of Berge.

We start the Berge family with Ole Gulickson Berge and Annie Berge, his wife of Vang, in Valdres, Norway. They were born in the late 18th century. They owned their home and acreage (gaard) in Norway. Both are buried in the Lutheran Church Cemetery in Vang, Valdres, Norway. They died perhaps in about the 1870's.

The following is a list of their sons and daughters, listed according to age:

1. Gullick O. Berge, who remained in Norway and took over the home gaard (farm).
2. Ambjor Berge, Gjovik, Norway.
3. Marit Berge, who married Ove Zacarison, who at that time had been working on the Berge farm for some time, and had taken the name of tht gaard (farm) as was customary at tha time in Norway, making his name Ove Zacarison Berge
4. Iver O Berge, Valders. Wisconsin.
5. Gulbrand O. Berge, Valders, Wisconsin
6. Ole O. Berge, Valders, Wisconsin
7. Berit Berge-Gullickson, R.F.D. No. 1, Manitowoc, Wisconsin
8. Annie Berge-Hougen, Manitowoc. Wisconsin.

Gullik O. Berge married Brita Grihammer.
They lived in Vang, Valdres, Norway. Both are deceased and buried there.

1. Ole G. Berge married Marit Hauge
   They, too, lived in Vang, Valdres, Norway
   They moved to Vestre Sildre Loken Norway.
   1. Ingebjorg Berge married Sampson Eik
